CLOTHING

Clothing is any article or garment you place on your body in order to protect or adorn it. It includes your clothes, accessories and other things. Clothing is very important. Clothes are normally sewn. Sewing therefor a very important occupation or skill. If you learn to sew, you can mend your own clothes and make new ones. You can also make your home more attractive by sewing household linens, such as curtains, table covers, and other decorative pieces. In this way, you will not only save money, you can even make money. In order to sew, you should be able to choose, use and care for sewing equipment and tools. You should also understand simple sewing terms and perform basic sewing operations.